PREAMBLE

Municipal home rule is based upon the theory that the citizens of a municipality should have the right to decide how their local problems should be solved. Still, the powers of home rule municipalities are limited by their charters, federal law, the state constitution, court decisions and legislation enacted by the General Assembly. It is the primary goal of this charter document to allow the government of the Town of Rico to operate more efficiently and to be successful in solving problems. It will always be the objective of the government of the Town of Rico to act in the best interests of the Town and its residents.
