

TOWN OF RICO
ORDINANCE NO. 2022-08

AN ORDINANCE OF THE TOWN OF RICO, COLORADO ADOPTING ELECTION REGULATIONS FOR THE TOWN'S REGULAR MUNICIPAL ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 1, 2022.

WHEREAS, the Town of Rico, Colorado ("Town") is a Colorado home rule municipality organized pursuant to Article XX of the Colorado Constitution and with the authority of the Town of Rico Home Rule Charter ("Charter"); and

WHEREAS, Section 11 of the Town's Charter provides that Town elections shall be governed by the Colorado municipal election laws, except as provided in the Charter, or by ordinance; and

WHEREAS, the Board finds and determines that modifying the deadlines provided for in Colorado's municipal election laws as provided in this Ordinance, for the Town's November 1, 2022 regular election only, will facilitate the timelines and deadlines provided for in the Town's Charter; and

WHEREAS, the Board finds and determines that delegating authority to the Town Clerk as described in this Ordinance will facilitate an efficient and effective regular municipal election.

NOW THEREFORE, THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE TOWN OF RICO ORDAINS:

Section 1. The recitals hereinabove are hereby adopted as findings and incorporated herein.

Section 2. For the Town of Rico November 1, 2022 regular municipal election only, the following provisions of the Colorado Municipal Election Code are modified as follows:

Additions shown in double underline, deletions shown in ~~strikethrough~~.

C.R.S. § 31-10-302(4)

(4) No petition is valid that does not contain the requisite number of signatures of registered electors. The clerk shall inspect timely filed petitions of nomination to ensure compliance with this section. Such inspection may consist of an examination of the information on the signature lines for patent defects, a comparison of the information on the signature lines with a list of registered electors provided by the county, or any other method of inspection reasonably expected to ensure compliance with this section. Any petition may be amended to correct or replace those signatures that the clerk finds are not in apparent conformity with the requirements of this section at any time prior to seventeen ~~sixty-three~~ days before the day of election.

C.R.S. § 31-10-303(1)

(1) Any person who has been nominated and who has accepted a nomination may cause his or her name to be withdrawn from such nomination at any time prior to seventeen ~~sixty-three~~ days before election by a written affidavit withdrawing from such nomination. The affidavit stating withdrawal shall be signed by the candidate and filed with the clerk.

C.R.S. § 31-10-305

All petitions of nomination and affidavits that are in apparent conformity with the provisions of section 31-10-302, as determined by the clerk, are valid unless objection thereto is duly made in writing within three days after the filing of the same. In case objection is made, notice thereof shall be forthwith mailed to any candidate who may be affected thereby. The clerk shall decide objections within at least forty-eight hours after the same are filed, and any objections sustained may be remedied or defect cured upon the original petition, by an amendment thereto, or by filing a new petition within three days after the objection is sustained, but in no event later than the eighteenth ~~sixty-fourth~~ day before the day of election. The clerk shall pass upon the validity of all objections, whether of form or substance, and the clerk's decisions upon matters of form shall be final. The clerk's decisions upon matters of substance shall be open to review if prompt application is made, as provided in section 31-10-1401, but the remedy in all cases shall be summary, and the decision of the district court shall be final and not subject to review by any other court; except that the supreme court, in the exercise of its discretion, may review any proceeding in a summary way.

C.R.S. § 31-10-306

The governing body of a municipality may provide by ordinance that no write-in vote for any municipal office shall be counted unless an affidavit of intent has been filed with the clerk by the person whose name is written in prior to eighteen ~~sixty-four~~ days before the day of the election indicating that such person desires the office and is qualified to assume the duties of that office if elected.

C.R.S. § 31-10-507

In any ordinance adopted by the governing body of the municipality requiring an affidavit of intent for write-in candidates as provided in section 31-10-306, the governing body may also provide that, if the only matter before the voters is the election of persons to office and if, at the close of business on the eighteenth ~~sixty-fourth~~ day before the election, there are not more candidates than offices to be filled at such election, including candidates filing affidavits of intent, the clerk, if instructed by resolution of the governing body either before or after such date, shall cancel the election and by resolution declare the candidates elected. If so provided by ordinance, upon such declaration the candidates shall be deemed elected. Notice of such cancellation shall be published, if possible, in order to inform the electors of the municipality, and notice of such cancellation shall be posted at each polling place and in not less than one other public place.

Section 3. Except as stated in Section 2 of this Ordinance, the Town's Charter and the Colorado Municipal Election Code apply to the November 1, 2022 regular municipal election.

Section 4. No write-in vote for municipal office shall be counted unless an affidavit of intent has been filed with the clerk by the person whose name is written in on or before Friday, October 14, 2022.

Section 5. If the only matter before the voters of the Town of Rico on November 1, 2022 is the election of persons to office and if, at the close of business on Friday, October 14, 2022 there are not more candidates than the offices to be filled at the election, including candidates filing affidavits of write-in intent, the Town Clerk, if instructed by resolution of the governing body either before or after such date, shall cancel the election and by resolution declare the candidates elected. Upon such resolution, the candidate(s) shall be deemed elected.

Section 6. The Town Clerk shall act as the designated election official for the Town of Rico and the Board hereby delegates to the Town Clerk the authority and responsibility for appointing the judges of election as provided by C.R.S. § 31-10-401. The Board also hereby delegates to the Town Clerk the authority and responsibility to perform other acts and duties and take further measures as necessary to facilitate the November 1, 2022 regular Town election.

Section 7. This Ordinance shall take effect immediately upon final adoption.
